The Vice President
United States Senate
Washington 25, D. C.

27/X/58 [redacted] STAT

Dear Mr. Vice President:

The White House has referred to us a letter of complaint dated 27 October 1958 from Mr. [redacted], a former employee of this Agency. Mr. [redacted] also sent copies of this letter to you, to Senators Knowland, Johnson and Mansfield and to me.

As a recipient of this letter from Mr. [redacted] I thought you would like a word concerning the case. Mr. [redacted] worked for this Agency as a contract employee for one year. Although he displayed some ability, Mr. [redacted] value was limited by his negative and complaining attitude. Efforts to assist Mr. [redacted] in overcoming this attitude failed and in July 1958 he voluntarily resigned.

Since resigning Mr. [redacted] has apparently not been employed. Last month he requested re-employment with us in the same position and at the same salary he objected to earlier. We have filled his former position and do not propose to re-employ Mr. [redacted].

Respectfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
